NEW SERIES—VOL. IX, NO. 31

PHOENIX, MARICOPA COUNTY, ARIZONA TERRITORY THURSDAY, AUGUST 23, 1883.

WHOLE NO. 1507

News of the Week.

(From Friday's Daily)

City court quiet.

Chambers small.

Prescott is longing for our water-melons.

Flies are comparatively scarce this season.

Doc Osborne is able to be up and around today.

Our southern Territorial mails are a minus quantity today.

No returns from the Riverside murders and stage robbers.

Judge Porter has been quite ill for some days, but is slowly recovering.

The foundation walls of Guss Ellis & Co.'s new building are beginning to loom up.

Hill's band at the Elite outdid itself last night. They were all Hillarians.

Mrs. Nancy A. Pickens was released yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus.

The Prescott news is that the Ash Fork stage robbers were gobbled at Williams, and a heavy rain has fallen.

H. E. Steinberger arrived in Phoenix early this morning. He is en route for San Francisco.

The mosquitoes were very annoying last night. They must quit, or we'll have to move in doors.

Prescott officers are keen fellows and stage robbery may not be such a safe business in that region of country hereafter.

Messrs. Salisbury of Benson and Robinson of San Francisco who have been visiting our town today, left for Benson this evening.

Messrs. Burnette and Tarbell left on last evening's coach for Tombstone having at length given satisfactory bonds for their appearance in October.

About 60 ounces of fine silver have been shipped out of the 23 pounds of rock which Porter has been assaying from the Maricopa and he has not used quite half of it.

Mr. M. J. Murphy of the Arizona Canal has received two excavators to be run by horsepower, which he will shortly set to work, and should they do well in the loose soil he will be put on two more which will hasten the work considerably.

At the meeting last evening to consider the sanitary condition of the town an Executive Committee, composed of Messrs. M. W. Kales, J. B. Kelly, Thos. Sherman, J. Y. T. Smith and C. Goldman was appointed with full discretionary powers to act, and a subscription list was started and about $1,200 at once subscribed for the use of the committee.

Eugene Caruthers, a nephew of Irvy Cox, and a first cousin to Frank Cox, our prominent lawyer, landed in Phoenix yesterday morning, straight from Texas. He is an acquisition to our town, and aside from his own attributes, anyone belonging to the Cox family is doubly welcome in Phoenix.

Messrs. Snodgrass and Orndorff are doing a lively little business in their new store. Fresh fruits and vegetables are always kept on hand, besides choice canned groceries, and a superlative assortment of wines, liquors, cigars and tobacco.

Royal Baking Powders Cook Book received today and henceforth we expect to be able to "bake" our "cook" gone according to the most approved plans. Ladies will be made a present of the book on purchasing a can of Royal Baking Powder.

Tom Sherman will put in a large stock of wines in the room lately occupied by the barber shop, next door to his saloon. He is getting on quite a stock of liquors and will have a handsome wine room in connection with his saloon.

Tucson has a confidence man.

Latest news items from Tombstone are—

The Citizen advocates a railroad to Phoenix.

Old jail check full and new jail fixing up as fast as possible.

Mr. Frank Goodwin, living southwest of town, died this forenoon.

The Tucson papers state that work is to begin on the Port Lobos road at once.

Roman Ortiz shot and instantly killed Librado Ruiz at St. Johns on last Saturday.

Immense piles of brick are putting in an appearance in the vicinity of the new Ellis building.

Auctioneer Wiley gave his usual Saturday afternoon entertainment this afternoon in front of the Court house.

It takes us that Tucson has more railroad projects on hand than are to be "pushed vigorously at once" than any other city in the territory.

We are requested by the Rev. Pearson to announce that there will be no services or Sunday school held at the Washington M. E. Church until further notice.

The papers from the southern part of the Territory should have arrived here yesterday as no doubt off on a little jamboe somewhere. Yesterday's paper arrived all right today, but leave their cider brethren behind.

Harper's Magazine for September is at hand today with an interesting historical article "Haunts of the Swamp Fox," also an "Unpublished Chapter of Hawaiian History," "The Catfish," and numerous other most interesting articles and serial stories.

Mr. Geo. W. Clark, the jeweller, yesterday received the sad intelligence of the drowning of his father and two sisters, while out sailing on Lake Erie, near London, Ontario, their home. Mr. Clark has our sincere sympathy in this his terrible bereavement.

Prof. Guthrie late principal of the public schools here has located a ranch near Williams on the A. & P. road and will henceforth devote his attention to the cultivation of matter rather than mind.

Forty-red whiskey and female ribberian mixed make a compound of few persons care to see more than once in a lifetime. We had our view of the case yesterday afternoon.

Sanitary Committee is working like Trojans, and if Phoenix is not a healthy town inside of a month it will be because the citizens will not bank the Committee.

Mr. T. A. Kinross, Lynchburg, Va. says: "Having been a periodical sufferer from rheumatism for many years, and having tried many different remedies, at last I resorted to St. Jacobs Oil and found relief and benefit by the first application."

While Mr. Gilson was driving up Washington Street, opposite E. Irving's Store one of his horses which was a bronco took fright and ran the wagon into Dr. Gregg's buggy giving it a humpback and a top ear. Thirty or forty dollars will repair damages and "fixer up good as new."

Judge Alsop is reviewing the case of Mrs. Pickens yesterday afternoon stated in substance that in his opinion she had been committed without the slightest evidence connecting her in any way with an attempt to procure an abortion, and the writ of habeas corpus was granted.

The large two-story building which is being erected on Monroe street will be occupied by that accomplished young lady, Miss Carmen Amaviva, as a private Spanish school. Miss Amaviva will be assisted by her sister Eliza. These young ladies are related to the family of Mr. Henry Garfias.

Great preparations are being made among the Mexican population for the celebration of the 73d anniversary of the Independence of Mexico, which occurs on the 15th of September. In Tempe the celebration will take place on 15th and will be on a much grander scale.

Quite a fracas occurred at Serrano's saloon today. A drunken Mexican began firing his pistol for fun and on attempt of officer Garcia to arrest him the crowd of Mexicans interfered, but after a struggle Garcia brought off his man, though it was a dangerous business.

Mr. Anron McDonald, late of St. George, Utah, and son of Mr. A. F. McDonald of Mesa City, has received the contract for doing the wood work on the new building of Guss Ellis & Co. Messrs. St. John & Co. who have the contract for the plastering, brick and stone work are pushing the stone work rapidly and the cellar wall will now soon be raised sufficiently to begin the brick work.

Saloons, restaurants and other business houses are respectively requested by the Sanitary Committee to place saucers of chloride of lime in their respective places of business and to pour a small quantity of sulphuric acid over the lime for the purpose of thoroughly disinfecting. It is further requested that this manner of disinfecting be kept up daily until further notice.

The Phoenix boys are alive to the pleasures of the season and have organized a base ball club to be known as the Phoenix Base Club, with the following members:

S. E. Patten, pitcher; Billy Widmer, catcher; C. H. Morris, short stop; Jos. Campbell, 1st base; Dr. W. G. Cook, 2d base; Dr. F. W. Gurnan, 3d base; E. H. Widmer, right field; Henry Wharton, center field; David Goldberg, left field.

It is understood that the Phoenix club will measure strength this afternoon at 5 o'clock on the field with the following club known as the Big Nine B. B. C., and having the following membership:

Dr. Wharton, pitcher; Mr. Wormser, catcher; Tom Greenlaw, short stop; Lum Gray, 1st base; J. B. Kelly, 2d base; A. Asher, 3d base; Sam Sneed, right field; Tom Smith, center field; E. Ganz, left field.

The Big Nine will appear in red lights and jockey caps. The Phoenix in navy blue sailor costumes. A good time is expected as there are several fine holders among the Big Nine while the Phoenix is noted for its batting and catching.

The Courier thus describes the three Ash Fork stage robbers who are now confined at Prescott: "The men gave their names as S. Owen, J. S. Owen and G. A. Kerby. The two former beings brothers. They live about a mile and a half or two miles south of Williams and say they had gone for a hunt on Thursday and had remained over night, returning Friday and, that when arrested, were engaged in building a stable on their ranch to which horses tracks had been traced by the officers."

S. Owen is the eldest of the brothers, being about 25 years of age, is married and removed to their ranch, at Williams, about one month ago, from near Tucson, where he had been in the employ of the Columbia Copper Co. He had brought his family with the intention of making that place his home.

J. S. Owens is about 20 years of age, and has with his mother, lived on their ranch for the past year and a half. They formerly lived in Tucson.

G. A. Kerby lives with the Owens. He came there from Phoenix some five or six weeks ago, is single and is in the neighborhood of 30 years of age.

Prof. Guthrie late principal of the public schools here has located a ranch near Williams on the A. & P. road and will henceforth devote his attention to the cultivation of matter rather than mind.

THE FLORENCE STAGE ROBBERIES.

FLORENCE, A. T., August 16.—Although there is not much apparent excitement here over the cold blooded, merciless and wanton assassination of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express messenger last Friday night by the two robbers who stopped the stage coach above Riverside on the Globe road as there was last year over the murder of messenger Andy Hill on same route, yet the community is deeply stirred, and there is a feeling of indignation that will not be abated until full justice is meted out to the perpetrators. At this moment it looks as though the crime will meet with sure retribution. A determined pursuit of the robbers has met with unlooked for success.

This morning Sheriff Doran and Deputy Scalan brought in two prisoners thought to be the principals; one against whom they have certain evidence as accessory, and another whom they can prove to be a harbinger and abettor. Their names are Frank Carpenter and Joe Tuttle, supposed to be the principals, and Len Redfield, whose ranch on the San Pedro is a rendezvous of robbers and one of a series of stations between Riverside and the upper San Pedro to Benson, where the gang to which these fellows belong are harbored and get fresh relays of horses while fleeing from the scene of their robberies. This capture was effected by Sheriff Doran, assisted by Deputy Scalan and Sheriff Pete Gabriel, Deputy Sheriff Fred Adams, Thomas P. Weeds, editor and proprietor of the Florence Enterprise and special Deputy Sheriff Wm. Harrington.

Chief of Police of the city, the important capture of a confederate known under the alias of Jack Avari and Jack Elmer, but generally known as Red Jacket. Mr. Gabriel has not yet arrived with his prisoners, but is momentarily expected in. Detective John Brent of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s force, is stopping here at the Silver King hotel on business connected with the recent robberies. On the receipt last night of information that the robbers had been captured, a meeting was called and was attended by the leading business men of Florence. The numerous outrages committed on the various routes of travel, and the best means of putting an end to this state of things, the raising of a company of volunteers for the courts, etc., were discussed and a determination arrived at that proper means be taken to insure speedy justice in this case. Judge Hinson Thomas has set the preliminary examination of the prisoners for Saturday at 10 o'clock a. m. It is possible that only one of the captives will be convicted as principal, but the results of the expedition are very important in the discovery of the rendezvous, etc., and certain facts will guide officers in future and will doubtless lead to the breaking up of the gang.

THE FLORENCE ROBBERIES. SAN FRANCISCO, August 18.—An Examiner special from Florence, Arizona, says: Sheriff Doran and Under Sheriff Scalan arrived in town yesterday, having in charge Tuttle, Carpenter and Redfield, charged with robbery of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s box on the Globe stage, and the murder of messenger Collins. The evidence is circumstantial. They were taken before Justice Thomas, and the examination continued until Saturday. Redfield is a farmer by the San Pedro river. A United States mail bag of a former robbery was found at his place. Ex-Sheriff Gabriel and Wells, Fargo's Detective Thacker have arrested an accessory at Benson. If they are the right parties, summary justice will be dealt.

DEATH OF JIM WALKER AT DENVER. DENVER, August 18.—On the fourteenth instant, on the arrival of the train at Calabasas with special detective Casanova, of Wells, Fargo & Co., on the trail of the Globe stage robbers he was told that such men as he described had been seen in town. In the afternoon he took the train at once for Nogales, thinking they would cross into Sonora here. Immediately on his arrival here he and Mr. Brickwood started to watch the Sonora line. They went a mile and a half into Sonora returning here about one a. m., on the fifteenth convinced that the robbers had taken the Santa Cruz valley route into Sonora. Nothing has been heard from the robbers since. It is presumed they got through to Sonora with the thirty five hundred dollars from the Wells, Fargo & Co.'s box.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PARTY. CAMP ISHAM, Grosvenore River Wyo., August 16.—Via Fort Washable W. T.—The President and party left Camp Lincoln this morning and continued the march down the tributaries of the Grosvenore and the main stream a distance of nineteen miles, going in camp at a grassy point on the main river, which has been named Camp Isham, in honor of Hon. Edward S. Isham, of Chicago. Secretary Lincoln and Captain Clark and two Indians started early this morning in pursuit of elk. The country abounds in game.
